CITY OF BRIDGMAN SPECIAL LAND USE APPLICATION

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

An application for Special Use Approval shall be processed as follows:

- a. Submitting the Application. An application for the approval of a special land use shall be made by an owner, lessee, or other person with a legal interest in the property who has the owner's consent to file the application. The application shall be accompanied by a complete full site plan and the necessary fees in accordance with the City's requirements, and written information describing the special land use and how the proposed land use will comply with the applicable specific standards in Section 8.11 and 8.12.
- b. Public Hearing Procedures. Notice of a hearing to consider a Special Use application shall be given by mail or personal delivery to the property owners for which Special Use permit approval is being considered, all persons to whom real property is assessed within three hundred (300) feet of the boundary of the property in question, and occupants of each dwelling unit owned or leased by different persons within three (300) hundred feet of the boundary of the property in question. Where the name of the occupant is not known, the term "occupant" may be used in making notification. Notice of the public hearing shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Bridgman. Such notices shall be given not less than fifteen (15) days before the date of the public hearing. Such notice shall include: 1) Description of the Special Use request; 2) General description of the property which is the subject of the Special Use Application; 3) The date, time, and location of the Public Hearing on the Special Use Application; and, 4) The time and location for written comments to be received concerning the Special Use application.
- c. Planning Commission Review. Following a public hearing, the Planning Commission shall: 1) Review the application and site plan along with recommendations from City staff. 2) Make a recommendation on the special land use along with any suggested conditions they deem necessary. 3) In making its recommendation the Planning Commission shall review the application for its appropriateness using the general standards that follow and the specific standards for the applicable use in Section 8.11 and 8.12.
- d. Basis for Action. In arriving at its decision, the Planning Commission shall refer to and be guided by those standards set forth in this Article. If the facts regarding the Special Use do not establish by preponderance of the evidence that the standards and requirements set forth in the Article can and will be met by the proposed Special Use, the Planning Commission shall deny the Special Use permit application. Amendments shall follow the procedures as outlined in Section 8.09, P. Departures shall follow the process in Section 8.10.
